4 I teach you how to shun and flee
What harms your soul's salvation,
Your heart from every guile to free,
From sin and its temptation.
I am the Refuge of the soul
And lead you to your heavenly goal.

5 Then let us follow Christ, our Lord,
And take the cross appointed
And, firmly clinging to His Word,
In suffering be undaunted.
For who bears not the battle's strain
The crown of life shall not obtain.

NEW SEMINARY SEAL

ADOPTED JANUARY 18, 1957

WE HAVE CHOSEN AS OUR THEME:

In The Footsteps Of Jesus

SPRINGFIELD • ILLINOIS

In Dedication

We hereby dedicate this yearbook to our able teacher and dear friend, Professor Martin H. Coyner, who has labored faithfully to provide us with the tools of our work. We remember Professor Coyner as a Christian gentleman who is unassuming in manner, yet quietly inspirational to his students.

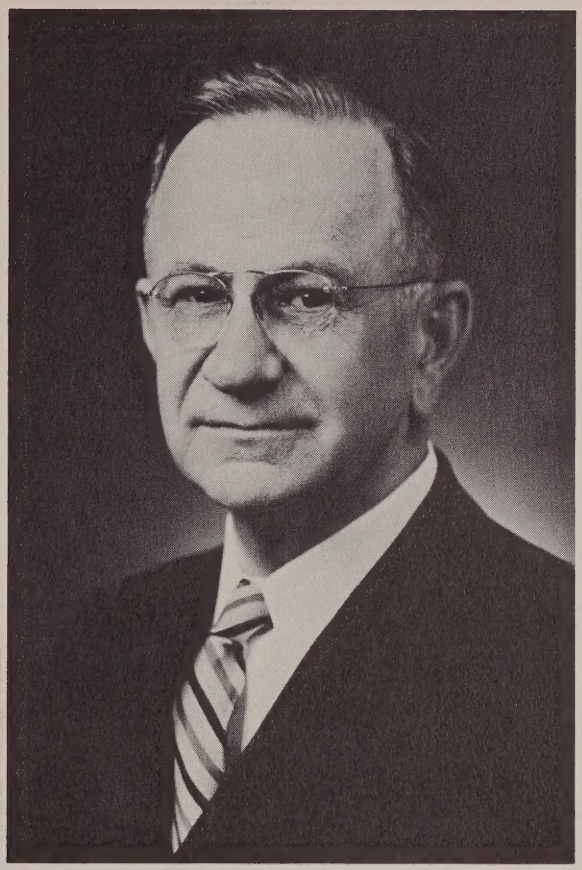
A MESSAGE FROM PROFESSOR COYNER

"That ye Should Follow in His Steps." I Peter 2, 21. These words were written by St. Peter to Christian servants in Asia Minor, but they are equally binding on all Christians everywhere, and at the same time constitute one of the key instructions for those who would be under-shepherds for their Master. That inner urge to prepare for the work of the holy ministry is essentially the call to follow in the footsteps of Jesus with the preaching of the Gospel of salvation to a languishing world.

Entering upon the curriculum prescribed by the seminary as preparation for the Gospel ministry, the student soon finds that the focal point is always Jesus. From beginning to end the significant questions recur again and again: What does Jesus say about this? What would be Jesus' course of action in this and that situation? What would Jesus prescribe as the dominant feature of my message to His flock? He, and He alone, is the Great Exemplar, qualified to be such by His being the propitiation for our sins, and our Savior for time and eternity. For this reason the preparation for the ministry, as well as the proper performance of the duties of that high office, involves a continuous search for the footprints of Jesus and a faithful and scrupulous following in His steps.

But the immediate setting of St. Peter's injunction to follow in Jesus' steps is that of proper behavior under trial and suffering. By the terms of conversion to Christianity Jesus' followers are bound to deny themselves, take up the cross, and suffer for His name's sake, as God ordains. When the going is difficult, it becomes all the more imperative to follow closely in His steps, learning from Him to bear up patiently, bravely, and willingly, and receiving from Him the necessary strength to overcome the difficulties of life and finally to obtain the incorruptible inheritance He has in store for His followers.

Jesus once said to Simon and Andrew, "Come ye after Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." It was through following Him that the whole course of their career was reshaped, and it was their association with Him that prepared them for soul-winning. There can be no adequate substitute for following the Leader, since He is the one and only Head of the Church, its Savior and Redeemer. For this reason there is absolute safety and guarantee of a happy issue to be found only in following in His steps. He shows the way, He is the Way. May God keep you in His care, to strengthen you in your labor of love, and to preserve you unto His heavenly kingdom.



MARTIN H. COYNER

Professor at Our Seminary Since 1928

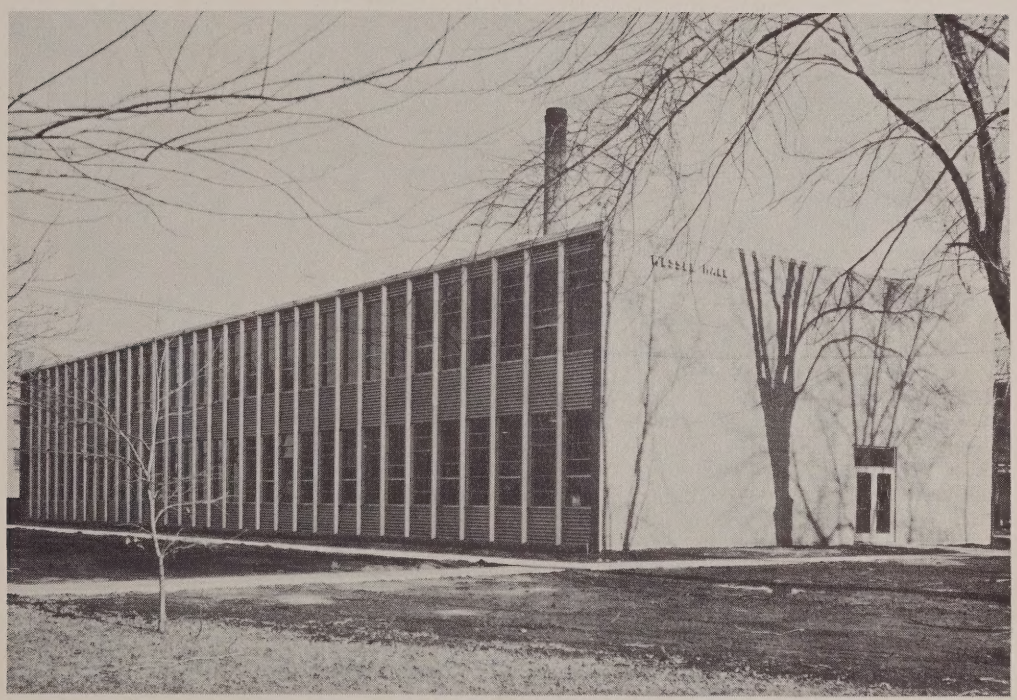
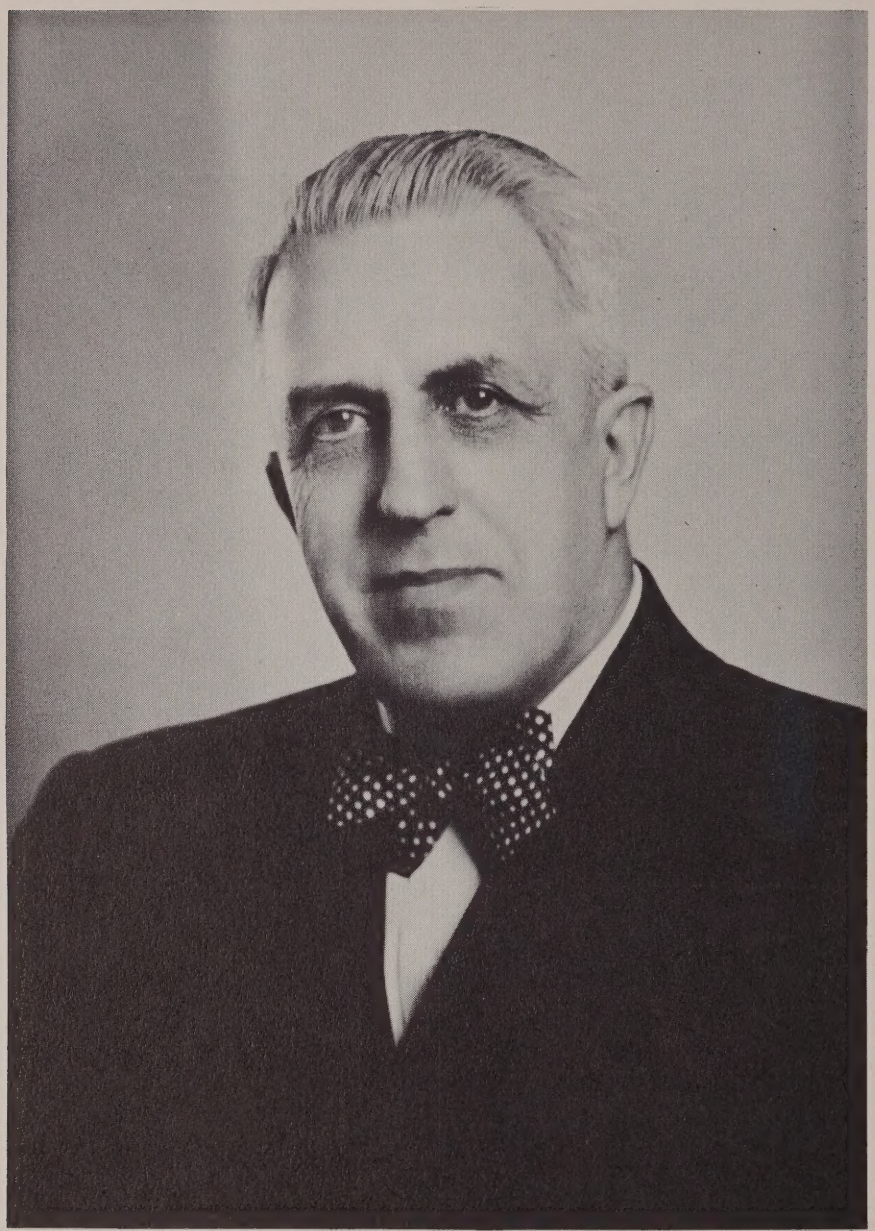
CONCORDIA SEMINARY is owned and operated by the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, for the purpose of training men for the Gospel ministry.

Faculty



"Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths."

ISAIAH 2:3



DR. WALTER A. BAEPLER, PRESIDENT

O Christ, Thou Head of the Church, endow those men who have the task and privilege of directing this school of the prophets and instructing the future pastors of Thy flock with an abundant measure of Thy Holy Spirit in order that they may be able with strength, courage and wisdom faithfully to fulfill their sacred task. Bless our seminary now and in the years to come, for the glory of Thy Most Holy Name.

AMEN.

A FRIEND

Compliments of a friend

A lot of salesmen will be calling on you in your lifetime. One should be your A.A.L. life insurance man. To hundreds of your fellow Lutherans, he is a friend and trusted counselor. When he calls, he does so as a friend and he's paying you a compliment.

It means he believes you are financially responsible and concerned about your obligations. It means you are well regarded in your church and community. It means he believes you are in good health. Otherwise he wouldn't call on you.

By calling on you soon, he'll not only be paying you a compliment, he'll also be doing you a favor. This is insurance bargain time for you. Never again will you be able to buy life insurance at the low rates available to you now. Each year you wait increases the cost of your insurance. So you can see the sooner you purchase your life insurance, the less your regular payments will be.

If you plan to purchase life insurance in the future—and most people do—why wait 'til it costs you more? Contact your A.A.L. man now. He'll be glad to call on you at your convenience, without obligation. If you don't know your A.A.L. man, write now to our home office and ask for his name.

YOUR CHURCH'S PENSION FUND FOR PASTORS AND TEACHERS OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH—MISSOURI SYNOD

Extends Congratulations and Best Wishes

To you Graduates we extend our most cordial congratulations upon the completion of your studies at our Springfield Concordia. Accept our best wishes for a long period of pleasant and effective service in the church.

By virtue of Synod's direction and by the grace of God you have been trained and prepared to be workers for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Entrust the days of your retirement, under God's guidance, to Synod by joining the Pension Fund as soon as you have entered upon your work.

We anticipate your early participation in Synod's Pension Fund.

Lasset uns mit Jesu ziehen
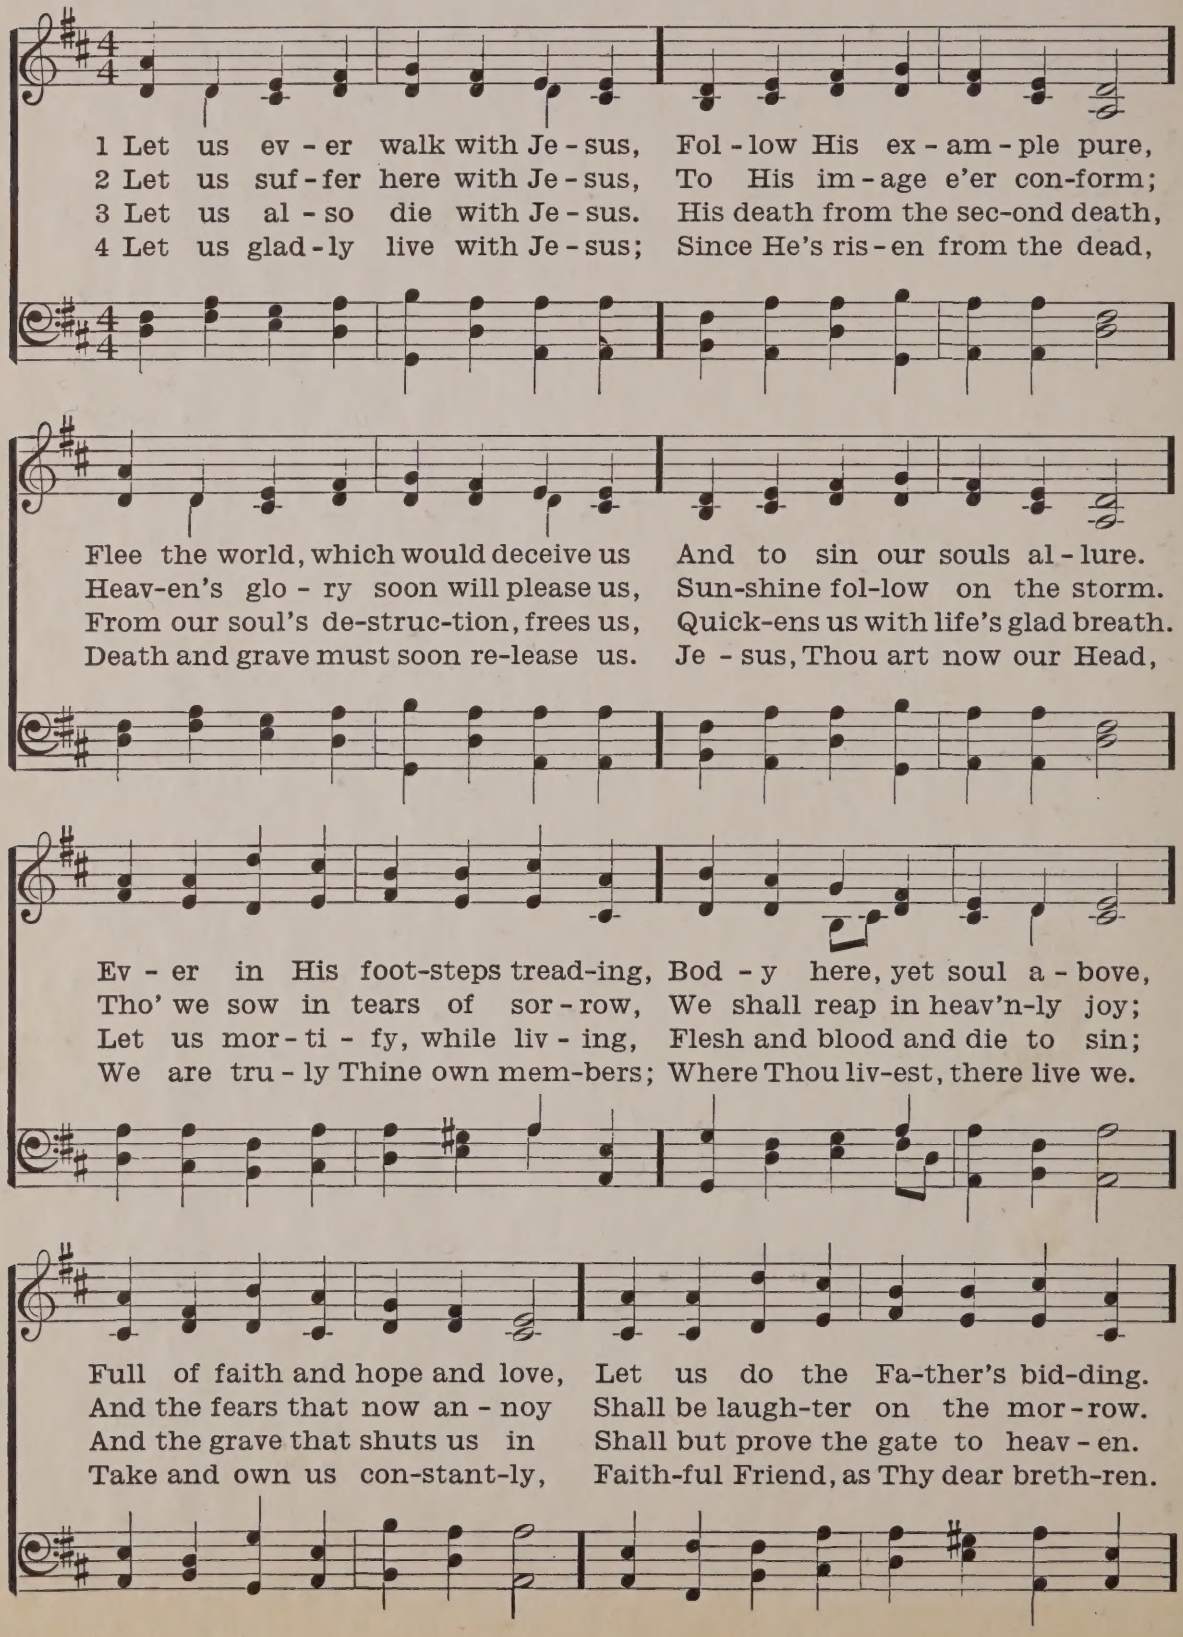
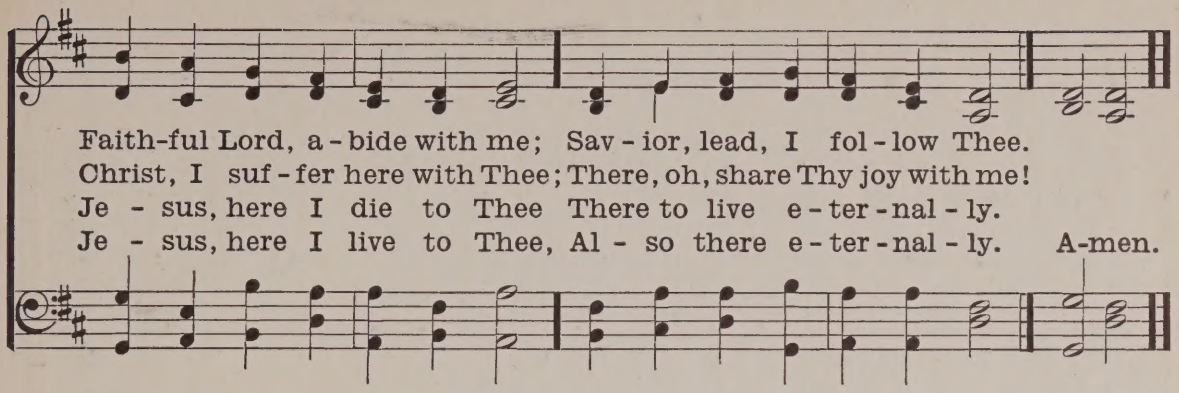
Georg G. Bolze, 1788



1 Let us ev - er walk with Je - sus, Fol - low His ex - am - ple pure,
2 Let us suf - fer here with Je - sus, To His im - age e'er con-form;
3 Let us al - so die with Je - sus. His death from the sec-ond death,
4 Let us glad - ly live with Je - sus; Since He's ris - en from the dead,
Flee the world, which would deceive us And to sin our souls al - lure.
Heav-en's glo - ry soon will please us, Sun-shine fol-low on the storm.
From our soul's de-struc-tion, frees us, Quick-ens us with life's glad breath.
Death and grave must soon re-lease us. Je - sus, Thou art now our Head,
Ev - er in His foot-steps tread-ing, Bod - y here, yet soul a - bove,
Tho' we sow in tears of sor - row, We shall reap in heav'n-ly joy;
Let us mor - ti - fy, while liv - ing, Flesh and blood and die to sin;
We are tru - ly Thine own mem-bers; Where Thou liv-est, there live we.
Full of faith and hope and love, Let us do the Fa-ther's bid-ding.
And the fears that now an - noy Shall be laugh-ter on the mor - row.
And the grave that shuts us in Shall but prove the gate to heav - en.
Take and own us con-stant-ly, Faith-ful Friend, as Thy dear breth-ren.

Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus



Faith-ful Lord, a-bide with me; Sav-ior, lead, I fol-low Thee.
Christ, I suf-fer here with Thee; There, oh, share Thy joy with me!
Je-sus, here I die to Thee There to live e-ter-nal-ly.
Je-sus, here I live to Thee, Al-so there e-ter-nal-ly. A-men.
